I. ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES FOR ASSISTANTS

A. THE ROLE OF ASSISTANTS

1. The work of Assistants is vital and essential in each training as a support to the Trainer's guidance of the group. Assistants serve as a container for both the SE Trainer and the Trainees, facilitating the learning process of the Trainees in their enterprise to become SE practitioners (SEP). If the team is doing really well, the Trainees will feel supported, safe and able to do their own work of processing information and practicing new skills as they learn to contain their own activation without overwhelm.
2. In order to fulfill this role in the best possible way, Assistants need to have a quiet and discrete presence. They must provide a sensitive and subtle attunement.
3. Assisting does not mean so much a role of 'helping' the Trainees than 'modeling' SE. Therefore Assistants need to be able to hold their own activation and to be able to regulate themselves. Furthermore a behavior of openness, curiosity and social engagement is essential to support the Trainees in their learning process and in their dialogue with the Trainer.
4. By assisting, Assistants will be able to internalize and deepen their own knowledge and improve their treatment skills in the SE method.
5. For this reason they will be supported in their work during the training times by SE Faculty and Senior Assistants, who will help to get more professional expertise in SE and in their personal growth, by case consultations and supervision.
6. Every Assistant is expected to take personal sessions and case consultations and to participate in Assistant Trainings and specific post-advanced seminars to maintain in a growing personal status
7. It will be within the authority of the Trainer to decide who will assist in training. Senior Assistants and the SE Training Organizer have a consulting function. To build a well balanced team it is essential to consider different criteria like the capacity and motivation for being a cooperative team member, personality, profession, sex, age, place of living, etc.

B. TO FULFILL THIS ROLE, THE FOLLOWING IS EXPECTED:

1. Only certified SEPs can apply to become an Assistant.
2. At least 2 years clinical experience with SE and an active SE practice at present time
3. Continuous personal SE sessions and case consultations after their training
4. Have assisted 4-6 days in Intros or Beginner module prior to assisting in a training
5. Commitment to a full cycle of training (optional after consulting the trainer)
6. To develop capacity for containment and self-regulation
7. To be a cooperative team member
8. To take in constructive feedback and direction
9. To maintain appropriate professional boundaries, including confidentiality

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

10. To support the Faculty teaching function
11. To have a working knowledge of the SE curriculum
12. To assist in providing overall class containment by helping faculty, fellow Assistants, Trainees and Organizers
13. To accept a negotiated agreement to participate in post-advanced trainings, to take case consultations and personal sessions.
14. The participation of an annual Assistant Training is strongly recommended at least every second year. (Exceptions can be made)
15. To be a member of a national SE Association (may vary from country to country)

Each Faculty member has her/his own preferences for how Assistants are to provide feedback to Trainees, support the Faculty teaching function, etc. If the Faculty member has not clearly articulated what is expected, we recommend Assistants to ask the Faculty member to outline what she/he is expecting of Assistants for that particular training.

C. DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED FOR APPLICATION FOR ASSISTANT ACCREDITATION

1. Copy of SE-Certificate
2. Copy of a current license to practice in their profession (as referenced in the Trainee entry criteria) OR copy of an active membership in a Professional Organization with its own Ethical Code of Conduct relating to that profession.
3. Curriculum Vitae (with photo) including professional and personal background
4. A short description of the professional occupation, status: employed or freelance, number of SE-clients per week and main focus of work
5. List of personal sessions and case consultations (Copy of Assistant Log)
6. Description of the applicant's own contributions and expectations as an Assistant
7. Short description of the most important experience (professional as well as personal) with trauma
8. Proof that there are no lawsuits (legal action) against the applicant (Yes/No)
9. Copy of membership of a national SE Association (may vary from country to country)
10. Copy of current liability insurance certificate
11. 1-2 letters of recommendation by Faculty members or Senior Assistants
12. 1 written case-study of several sessions with one client (optional)
13. 1 DVD of one session (on request)

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

D. SPECIFICATION OF ASSISTING

Applications for all Assistant levels of accreditation, (Junior Assistant/AIT and Assistant levels) will be reviewed and approved by:

- the Trainer and Senior Assistant of your National SE Training; and
- depending on your country's local SE Community Structure, either your:
 - National SE Assistant Approval Committee;
 - National SE Association; or
 - National SE Training Organizer.

1. Assistants are not allowed to give accredited case consultations, (individual case consultations or small group case consultations)
2. Assistants should keep an Assistant Log where all training-segments, case-consultations, personal SE-sessions and Advanced/Post-advanced trainings are listed
3. When assisting the first training cycle, (this level might be called Junior Assistant, e.g. in Germany, or Assistant In Training, AIT, e.g. in Denmark), the Assistant can be given permission by the Trainer to facilitate small group/triad work on their own during the training or can be asked to work under guidance of a Senior Assistant or a more experienced Assistant.
4. To gain accreditation to give Trainee personal sessions the Junior Assistant/AIT is required to either:
 - give a session under live supervision in the presence of a Trainer or Senior Assistant during the training; or
 - provide a DVD of a session.
5. When the Assistant is approved, (e.g. in Denmark earliest after completion of the first training cycle), they can provide accredited personal sessions for the level of the training at which he/she is assisting,
6. When assisting further training cycles:
 - The Assistant can coach small groups/triads during the training
 - The Assistant can give accredited personal session for all levels of training
7. The Assistant Trainee ratio for trainings is one Assistant for every 3-6 Trainees

E. REIMBURSEMENT

1. Assistant gets room and board paid (unless something else is agreed)
2. Assistants will be mentored by the Trainer and Senior Assistant at the team meetings during the training and receive support and supervision

F. TERMINATION OF ASSISTING

1. To being able to give sessions on the current level of teaching, it is essential to stay in close contact with the SE-trainings and their advancement. Therefore it is necessary for an Assistant to be in an active assisting process.

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

2. If an Assistant did not assist at a training for more than 3 years, the accreditation as an Assistant ends.
3. Independent of this, the accreditation of assisting can be removed if the criteria for being an Assistant are no longer fulfilled or other severe reasons are given, (e.g. problems with alcohol or drugs).
4. The Assistant can then no longer give accredited sessions.

A new application as an Assistant is possible every time, the earlier application will be valid with a little more explanation.

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

II. ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES FOR SENIOR ASSISTANTS

A. ROLE OF SENIOR ASSISTANTS

1. Senior Assistants have a role which asks for much more leadership and educational support than Assistants. As case consultations include elements of the teaching function, special attention has been given in establishing criteria at this level of accreditation. The requirements for this level mirror the higher responsibility and also the needed teaching skills.
2. Senior Assistants are very experienced SE Practitioners who have integrated SE into their professional practice and know how to stay within their professional scope of practice when giving case consultations and to refer a client to someone else if necessary.
3. Since Senior Assistants are helping Trainees integrate their SE learning into various practice modalities, it is recommended that Senior Assistants be knowledgeable about the scope of practice and ethics boundaries in their area of professional practice.
4. Senior Assistants should be able to meet Trainees' needs, to get feedback on cases they are struggling with, review SE concepts, or explore ideas they are generating from their integration of SE into their practice modality.
5. It is important that Senior Assistants stay current with the SE curriculum and vocabulary so they can best support Trainees currently enrolled in the SE training.
6. Senior Assistants have the role of personal assistant to the Trainer and therefore require a special awareness for the needs of the Trainer and the class.
7. During the training Senior Assistants together with the Trainer mentor and coach the Assistants.

B. CASE-CONSULTATIONS

There are 2 levels of Senior Assistants:

- Level 1 is:
 - entitled to give individual case consultation alone (German Model); and
 - together with a Senior Assistant colleague she/he is enabled to give group consultation up to 10 people (Swiss Model)
 - is expected to get him/herself supervision for every 10 case-consultations
- Level 2 is entitled to give individual and group case consultations on their own to groups of up to 10 people.

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

- Some regular spiritual or mindfulness practice

Additional material for application for Advanced Level Trainer:

- 1 extended case study
- 1 DVD of working with a client for a minimum of 3 sessions
- 1 DVD of doing bodywork with a client
- 1 DVD of giving group case consultation and/or teaching Intermediate Level

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

IV. TRAINING GUIDELINES FOR TEACHING INTROS

The aims and benefits of teaching Introductory Workshops (Intros):

INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC

- To give more information to the public and interested people;
- To mediate the basic ideas of SE and the biological understanding of trauma-dynamics

TRAINER AND FUTURE STUDENTS GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER (and the material)

- To help interested people in their decision to participate in a SE training. To give them the opportunity to check whether they like the content, the setting and the Trainer
- To give the Trainer and the team the possibility to get to know future Trainees;
 - o to check their resiliency;
 - o to assess if they are capable of taking the training; or/and
 - o to advise them to first do a personal process if needed
- It would be helpful, if all presenters of Intros inform each other about possible Trainee candidates who should not take the training, (often people who are turned down by one Trainer/ Organizer try to enter with a different one).

TRAINER AND ASSISTANT GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER (can test and be tested)

- To give the Trainer the opportunity to get to know SEP's who want to assist; to assess their resiliency; their ability for contact; and their knowledge of SE.
- To give interested SEP's the opportunity to see what it feels like to assist and to get to know a Trainer

INTROS MEAN A PROLONGED TRAINING TIME

- Intros last 2 – 3 days (e.g. Switzerland and Denmark 3 days, Germany 2 days).
- In the Intro a short view of many of the training contents are given and can be digested. In the training this means this content is already known a little and can be deepened. The teaching time is prolonged by 2-3 days which is very valuable with the amount of teaching material.

European Association for Somatic Experiencing®

WHAT SHOULD BE THE CONTENT OF AN INTRO?

The following list of basic themes should be taught in an Intro, but there should be enough space for every trainer for his/her own form and style and order.

- Definition of Trauma out of a SE view
- Orientation
- Resource > eventually with an exercise
- Felt Sense (comfortable – less comfortable)
- Resiliency
- Activation curve (I can – I can't)
- Video: Nature lessons
- Stream of Life-Model
- Pendulation
- Titration
- Tracking
- Demos
- Practicum 1: Pendulation (Orientation – Resource – Orientation)
- Practicum 2: a more body oriented exercise (e.g. hand-push, tiger exercise)
- Video: Ron

WHO CAN TEACH INTROS?

As the first and public information about SE is especially important and sensitive, Intros should be taught only by Members of Faculty and Faculty on Track.
