What Happens Next

Once you have emailed this completed form to the scholarships@traumahealing.org team, your application will be passed along to an independent, regional review committee for the Tri-State area. They will make their determinations after all scholarship applications have been submitted and will announce the 2023 awardee on or around May 15, 2023.

Your completed application to the national Black, Indigenous, People of Color scholarship will be reviewed upon receipt, and you can expect a decision 30-45 days after you have submitted your application. If you are awarded the Tri-State Black, Indigenous, People of Color Scholarship, that award will replace your national Black, Indigenous, People of Scholarship award.
